

Oregon RVing Women - March 11- 13, 2016
Mill Casino RV Park, North Bend, OR

March Madness...Could that have originally referred to extreme weather conditions in the month of March rather than the basketball tournaments? Ask any of the 25 women who attended the ORVW rally in North Bend, Oregon and they would likely refer to the unrelenting rain, the 70 MPH wind gusts, and the local flooding. We were thankful that the RV's appeared to be no worse for wear although Gayle did climb on the top of her rig to check her sunroof and Becky found one of her window coverings seven sites away.

Thankfully there were several indoor things to do:
visit a myrtlewood factory
visit Coos Bay museum
gamble at the Mill Casino
attend a jazz concert

And for the brave?
Several went out to Shore Acres to watch

the waves crashing on shore – a true spectacle of nature.

Everyone enjoyed the tulip flowered cup cakes in honor of June's birthday. MarJo led a beading project and many members walked away with some lovely bracelets. The potluck dinners including a taco bar, lunch at a local restaurant, and the traditional puzzle and card games ensured that in spite of the weather, a fun time was had by all.
