

Oceanside RV Park, Charleston, OR
September 2012

This seems to be one of our favorite parks as we come here often. It is the only Oregon park that we have found with a clubhouse (yurt) that is literally right next to the beach which our dog owners and other walkers just love. No one wrote up this particular rally, but we do have a few photos.

Food followed by camaraderie is always a first order of business.

And then we also love our games. Among the favorites are Square Nine (also known as Nine Square) at the far end of the table and Rummikub at the near end.

We also had a concert that weekend by the local group of Sweet Adelines.

And of course, you can never beat the scenery.
